Headmaster's message

Mr. K.H. Barry Gallant

We live in interesting times. Changes and threats of change seem a regular feature of our lives, but I am sure that we all appreciate that fact here at the school because our routine seems the same from day to day and term to term. But change is all around us; political, social, economic, and the pace of change is increasing.

Although there is an apparent sameness to the school now as there was one year ago, or five years ago, change is constant. Talk to alumni when they visit the school and they will tell you of the enormous differences between "your" school and "theirs". This school will be 125 years old next year, and it did not survive all of this time being the same. It has had to plan and forecast and adjust as you will when you leave here after graduation.

Stanstead is going through one of those periods of major change and adjustment now. As I write this, we are in the middle of a self-study which is examining every aspect of the school and which will eventually involve all parts of the school community. This study is part of our movement toward accreditation by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges. This is the oldest accrediting body in the United States and it accredits schools from the local high school to the largest independent schools such as Exeter, and to the Ivy League universities such as Harvard. We are the first school ever to be accepted as a candidate for full membership and accreditation outside the New England states.

We are doing this for two reasons. The self-study and inspection process will make Stanstead a better school and our application to NEASC reflects our commitment to change and especially our commitment to a wider North American focus for our programmes, associations and recruiting. This is a major change for Stanstead, but it is one that is needed and it is one which reflects our changing circumstances, but at the same time it will not change our essential character.

Individuals need to do this too, and your generation is going to face changed circumstances of a scale and speed that are unprecedented. Keep one thing in mind: your plans and actions will change as circumstances and desires change, but your character will not. Character is the bed-rock on which everything else is built, and if that is solid and sturdy, then change will be a challenge, but manageable. I hope that we have had some role in developing your character. I hope that it is strong and robust and decent, because in the end, that is what education is about - building character.

Spring break in Italy and France

This year, the school embarked on a March break trip to somewhat familiar territory, Italy and southern France. However, the itinerary included many sights which neither the supervisors nor any of the students on the trip had seen before.

The group was the largest in the recent history of the trips: 34 students plus Mr. Denney and Mr. Simard. We had a wide range of cultures and ages represented in the group, and everyone managed to have a great time and seemed to genuinely enjoy the time we spent together in Europe. This was true despite some adventures (and misadventures) which we experienced.

Upon our arrival in Rome, we were off to the Hotel Country Club Castelfusano with visions of marble and lush courtyards running through our heads only to arrive and find out that it was basically a glorified youth hostel. Cots or beds, small rooms, and cold showers. What a start! The accommodation did improve as the trip went on, and we became expert star gazers (looking to see whether the hotels were 2, 3, or 4 stars).

Our guide Christina ("Do you like me? . . . Is that O.K.??") and our bus driver Franco were our leaders on our trek through the cities and towns of Italy and France. Among the many highlights of the trip were the visit of Rome (including the Vatican, St. Peter's, the Pantheon, the Trevi fountain . . .); Pisa and the Miracle square, Florence and the National Gallery, Duomo . . .; the Villa D'Este and its magnificent fountains; the Basilica of St. Frances of Assisi; St. Mark's square in Venice; Nice; Cannes - home of the film festival; Monaco and Monte Carlo with the palace, the casino . . . and many many more.

Thank you to all the students who accompanied us . . . Jeff Supino for providing our entertainment . . . Sarah Minray who shopped out all the neon colored polyester clothing . . . Guillaume who acted as a third supervisor and was heard to exclaim: "Wow are those British girls' accents ever sexy" . . . Jin and his one pair of pants . . . Yue our friend and guest . . . Jean Maxime who made many friends throughout the trip . . . Katherine who got kicked out of most shops (not to mention the incident in the Country Club) . . . Vince and his dance music and survey results . . . Kikuko counting the men . . . Ianitt and her ice cream . . . and all the others. We hope that you enjoyed the trip as much as we did . . . Mr. Denney especially enjoyed the drink choices for the McDonald's trio . . . and Mr. Simard the blackjack winnings at the casinos.

THE INTERNET

by Wesley Attack

The Internet: wow! is the first impression.
All the things you can find with just one depression
Of the mouse that sits innocently on the pad -
The same mouse that may burn you mad.
There's so much to learn and so much to see,
You could spend hours on it, if you're like me.
But for what, you may ask from time to time?

It's scary when you think of the things you can do: -
Look up words, names, places and people too!
You can do it alone, in groups or in pairs,
Before school, lunch, in study or in spares.
You can surf the net for whatever you feel
Be it nasty, naughty, fun, virtual or real!
It's so easy - just push those keys
To travel all lands and the seven seas!

But watch out, careful, mind your step!
Go too far and you may get upset,
Reading all the X-rated or serial killer stuff
On how to have sex, rape and be tough.
It's all there, no censorship allowed -
Freedom of speech is shouted aloud.
The best thing about it all, though,
Must be that it's educational and a good show!

COLOUR OF LIFE . . . OF FALL

Colour of Life
The First time I saw you,
I felt something wonderful, . . .
A feeling that I never felt before.

Red, yellow, orange,
The colour of fire,
The colour of love.

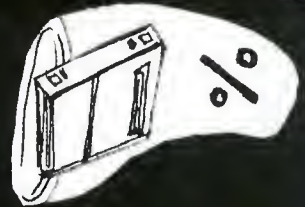

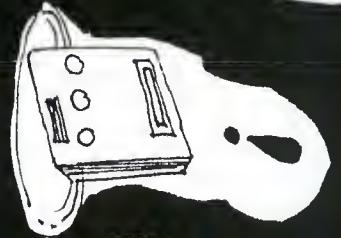

Red as a leaf,
Red as the liberty of my love,
Love that I had for you.

Yellow as another leaf,
Yellow as the sun,
Sun as the heat of my heart.

Orange, . . . I don't know.
Known as your eyes,
Eyes of sadness.

Brown as a tree,
Tree as a life,
Life, the colour of Fall.

Crush

My eyes are closed
My mind is open
I feel a dream of you approaching
When your lips come close
I can't breathe
When your eyes meet mine
I can't see
Your hand on my hip
Is burning slowly
I feel I'm flying

Your breath is a drug
"I get no kick from cocaine"
A highly addictive narcotic
But I won't seek rehabilitation
I get this dreamy look in my eyes
And your smile intoxicates me

The endorphins pulse through my head
And I realize that I am in love with you

I don't know how to tell you
But I'm sure it's what I need to do
My brains begin to stew
My eyelids jam like glue
Old laughter will echo through
My lips can still taste your brew
My dream ends a day is new
I wake and I am filled with you

Petals in the Mud

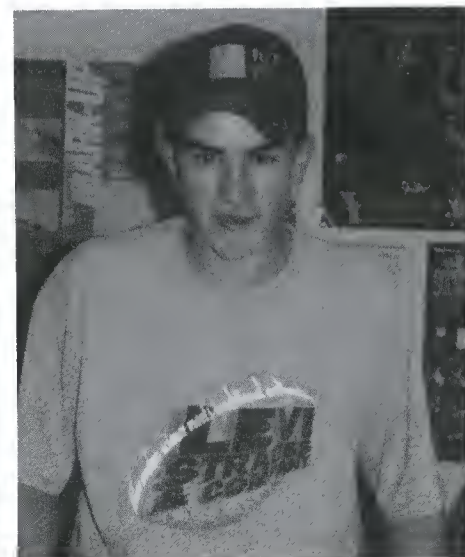

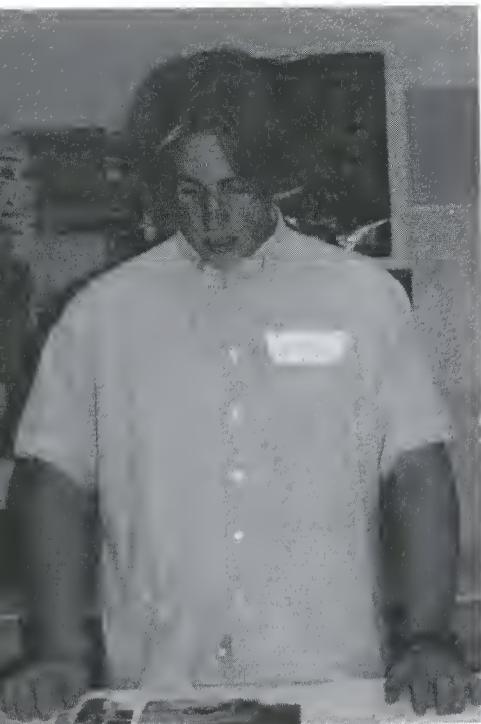

She picked me like a flower,
And potted me like a plant.
I spent sunny days and rainy days
Living on her windowsill.

She stood beneath me like a stem.
She gave me strength,
And built me up.
She fed me like the rains,
She was my sun and gave me light.
If she ever left me,
I would be just petals in the mud.

Interact club

The Interact club kicked off the year by holding its annual Terry Fox Run. However, this year represented the first time the fund-raiser was open to local residents as well. With a great show of support, over one thousand dollars was raised to help fund cancer research.

Afterwards, The Penny Drive swung into gear to raise money to support SWC's foster child in India, and other organizations. And with the help of the entire school, SWC collected dozens of boxes of canned goods to replenish the stocks of a local charity.

Finally, congratulations are in order for Amy Kells for having been the sole participant in this year's 30 Hour Famine. The money she collected, will go to World Vision, who distributes funding to the third world nations.

Thank you to all those who helped Interact help others.

THE RED BREASTED ROBIN

by Simon Petraki

I watched the birds today.
Brown, red breasted and grey.
They nibbled at the colorful bell,
Until all of the big seeds fell.

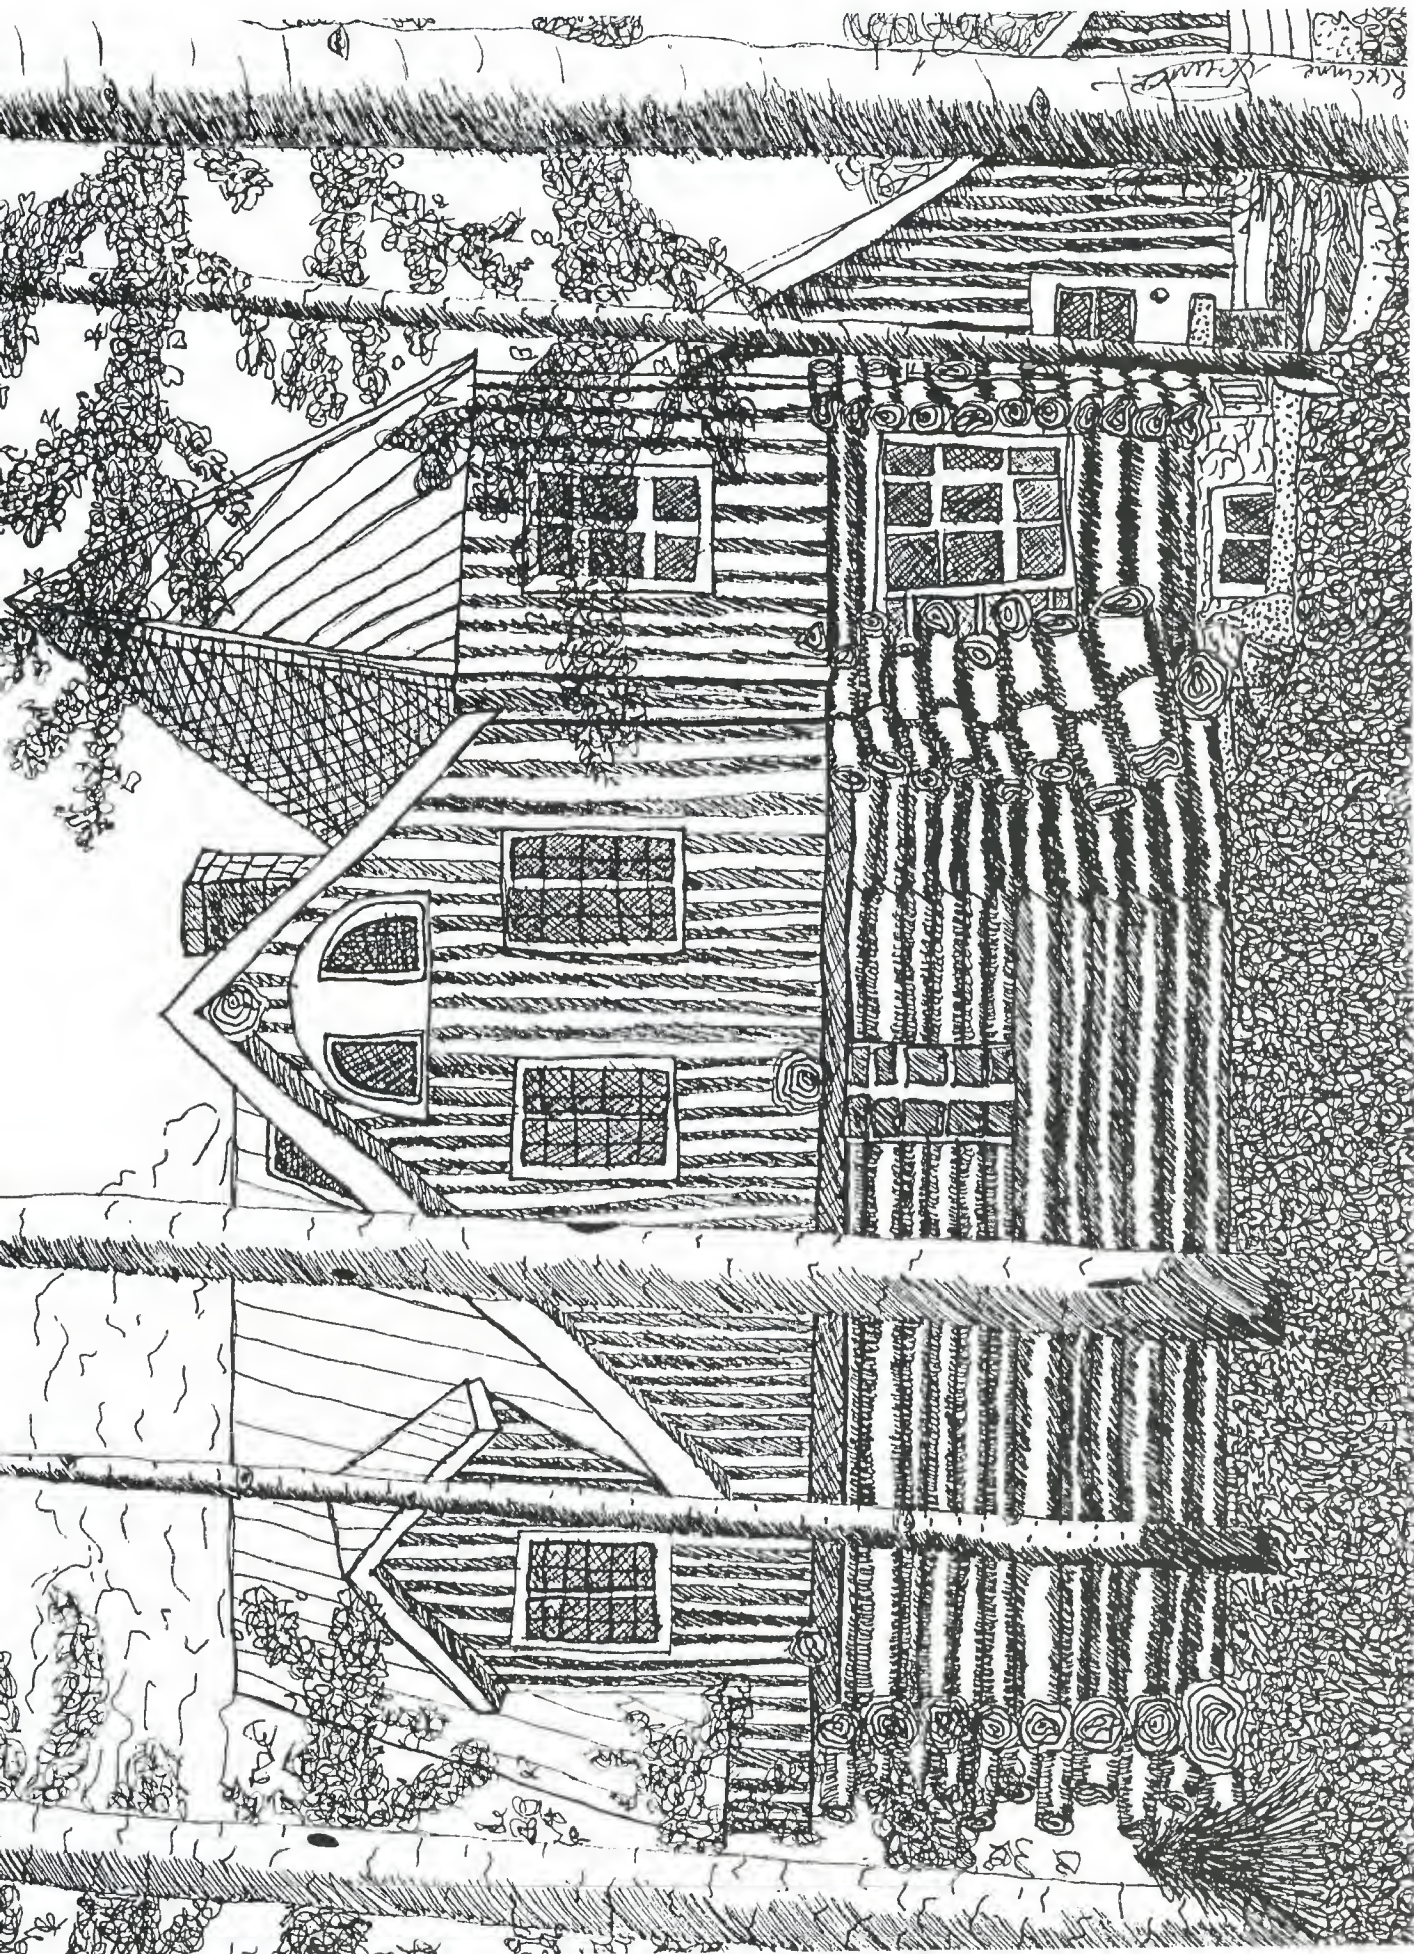

As it snowed today,
Through the windows I noticed
That all the birds had flown away.
Only one was left,
Sitting trembling in a tree,
The Red Breasted Robin,
Too frozen to flee.

The Balance (April 17th)

I realize I can't articulate feelings of happiness
I don't know why
But the muse only comes in times of sadness
She is with me always
And I realize I am a very pathetic character in some cheesy story written by God and
The Devil. The muse
is my salvation
She keeps me from the blinding light
and opens my eyes
in the Darkness.
And I realize that Good and Evil cannot exist without each other but it seems that the Darkness is spreading faster than the light can shine. The muse
hides me in the gray
Shadows, but the light keeps retreating.
It leaves me trapped in the darkness when I should be in the reassuring twilight of the gray shadows that I love
Skulker in the Shadows
The Dark is Rising
As the Light dims.
But the light has not died
There is still hope for my survival
Enforced good is stagnation
But that does not mean the Light should be put out for then we shall be groping in the hopeless Dark and the Beauty of the Gray Twilight and the Pale Dawn
will be Gone Forever
Darkness and Light
Good and Evil
The Balance must hold or all will be lost.

The 1995 edition of the Senior Girls' Soccer Team was a joy to coach. We worked hard, performed well, and showed class. And, of course, we had a great time.

The ETIAC league was extremely competitive this year, but after a slow start we finished strong and squeaked into the playoffs. There we lost to a muddy, puddly, but well contested game 4-2 to the eventual champions Galt in the semifinals.

In tournament play, we were quite successful. We advanced to the Semi finals in the Galt tournament, the finals in our own Invitational, and in the highlight of the season, we were division "B" Champions in the 12-team CAIS Invitational in Toronto, beating RCS in the Finals 1-0.

But while success was nice, what made this season memorable for me was that the team was always having fun, be it Laser Quest, guitar singalongs, Jumblo, or, of course, underwear on the lampshades. We were a team of freaks, but in the end, we were NOT easy to score on.

Congratulations to Senior S winner Meaghan, Major S winners Deepali and Velika, and Major S and trophy winner Gen. And thanks again to everybody for an unforgettable season.

Coach Van Dyke

This year's senior boys team did not enjoy many victories but they were a nice group of boys to coach. The bottom line was that we lacked the ability to finish. We couldn't maintain enough offensive pressure to keep the ball in the offensive end.

It is rare that the Senior Boy's don't make the play-offs. This year was one of those exceptions, however, it was not for lack of effort.

I would especially like to thank the heart and soul of the team, Manabu Fujimoto for his tireless effort. The addition of Frederick Rancourt also helped to shore up the offence. Next year! There's always next year and I hope that many of the boys will return to build on the foundations of this year.

As has been the case the past few seasons, this year's edition of the Stanstead Football Spartans once again provided coach Simard and myself with a number of pleasant surprises.

Numbers were very thin on the first day of practice. However by the time our season opened ten days later against B.C.S., we had picked up a number of "walk-ons" from other programs, along with a late arrival exchange student from England, and we were starting to look like a football team.

The next seven weeks proved to be both satisfying and exciting for all those involved in the program. Along the way we compiled a record of 4 wins 3 losses and 2 ties. We were undefeated in our 3 encounters with Alexander Galt and enjoyed a convincing (21-0) victory in our first ever game with Appleby College.

Without a doubt, our season's highlight in the team's performance in the league championship game against B.C.S. With eleven of our players going "two ways", the two teams were locked in a scoreless tie at the end of regulation play. We ultimately succumbed to acute fatigue in overtime, losing 7-0 to a very strong B.C.S. team with considerably more depth.

Although we fell just short of our objective in the championship game, the 26 players who comprised the 1995 Football Spartans can look back on the season with the satisfaction that as a team we played with character, intensity and never gave up.

Coaches: A. Elliot, A. Simard

Cross Country Running is not for wimps. I guess that is why we started with almost 20 interested runners, and dwindled to a far more irrepressible number - 8. What a season! We did not bring home all the medals, but we provided fair competition at the meets. I can't describe some of the improvements that certain people made; setting personal goals, we decided, was far more important in the grand scheme of life, the universe, and everything than always crossing the finish line first. Your hearts were in the right place, and you all ran the best of your ability. In particular, Eloise and Charlie persisted and earned the respective team "S's". But know, team, that I commend you all.

Hitting the trails proved to be a daily adventure. We were all curious to see how much distance Carl would glean from his competitors once he started spouting his insights on the Referendum. Then there were Melisa's thoughtfulness as she tried to swipe my bike when I was in a cast, Tom's excuse for the day, Nahil's stories, Charlie's contacts (then Carl's subsequent advice), Eloise's opinions (then even more vigorous advice), Meagan's toe, and Sarah's smile... All considered - I'd do it again; I looked forward to our runs at the end of the day.

This was not the best season in recent memory for the senior boys team. In fact it should be called the year of the diminishing roster. After starting the season relatively optimistically, the team was soon hit by a rash of departures. Most notably were those of M. Chen and JH Hwang who left midseason and took with them most of our height. Then there were the injuries to Nathan Couture and Wesley Attack which took the rest of it.

The season was spent playing guards as forwards doing our best against strong competition. We did not win a game (league or exhibition) all season long. We did not qualify for the ETIAC playoffs.

The highlight of our season was our hosting the 24th annual Anderson-Bailly Tournament, got NIKE to come as a major sponsor and managed to host a first-class and very memorable event. The boys final, between Quebec High and St. Patrick's High, was an exciting, quality basketball game.

Nathan Couture was selected to the All-StarTeam of our own S.I.T., and Zeeshan Hussain was selected at the BCS tournament, the Anderson-Bailly tournament (where he also won the free-throw competition), and to the ETIAC All-Star team which played the SSIAC All-Stars in January.

It was a long season, but we did our best despite some pretty rough circumstances. I look forward to seeing some of you back next year, and thank you for your effort this season.

Thanks to Zeeshan Hussain, team captain, for his leadership throughout the season and for the many years we have spent together with the hoops. Congratulations to the award winners: Senior "S" - Manibu Fujimoto, Man "S" - Nathan Couture and Zeeshan Hussain, Amaran Trophy Zeeshan Hussain.

This was my first year coaching senior girls' basketball, and quite a year it was. Although I have come to expect the hard work, improved performance and good times that are part and parcel of coaching here at Stanstead, I WAS happily surprised by the success that we enjoyed.

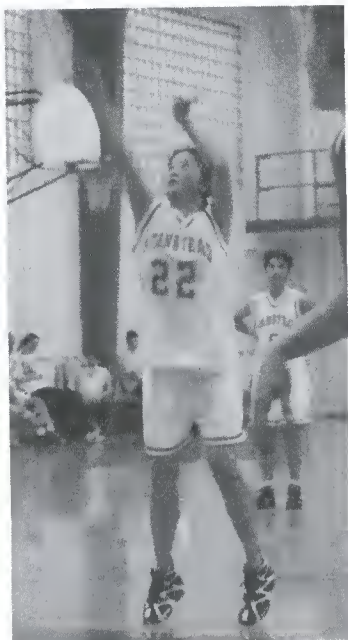

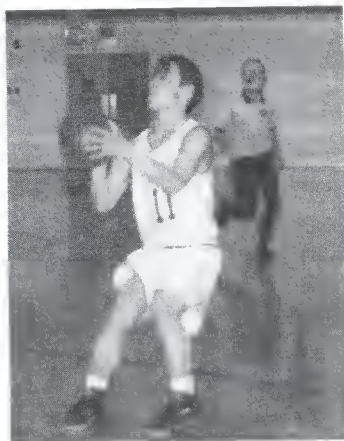

In a very strong league, we beat BCS both times we met them, qualifying for the ETIAC playoffs. We hosted the Anderson-Bailly where we finished 1-1 in the round-robin, and then lost respectfully to the eventual champions in the semi-finals. We were 3-2 at the BCS tournament en route to winning the B division trophy. In the highlight of the season we finished third out of twelve teams at the Montreal Invitational Tournament, barely missing out on the Silver Medal.

All in all, in a very strong season, we finished with 11 wins and 16 losses, proving that this basketball team could play with anybody.

A heartfelt thank-you to all team members, and congratulations to Deepti Kumar, Abigail Gilibert and Angelica O'Sullivan for their senior "S" awards. Special congratulations go to Gen Yong for her major "S" and MVP trophy.

We were a close team, a fun team, a classy team and a good team. I look forward to next year with a smile.

Two new different coaches with different backgrounds and twenty-two boys willing to learn everything, that was the 1995-96 edition of the Spartans this year. Myself and Dave Dubois absolutely had a blast coaching this year. We did not win many games, but the improvement throughout the year was remarkable. We all learned a lot about how to mentally and physically prepare for the game and also how to handle frustration and disappointment. It was refreshing to say after the game that we lost because of a hot goalie or missed opportunities and not saying that we could not make it to their end of the ice. I personally want to thank every player for making our first year of coaching a rewarding one. With the skill level that we had I strongly believe that we got 100% effort most nights which says a lot about the players and the coaches during a long season. There will be major changes next year in the program, but I guarantee you that this time we will get the recognition we deserve. I want to thank Dave for all his help this year and I am looking forward to working with him next year.

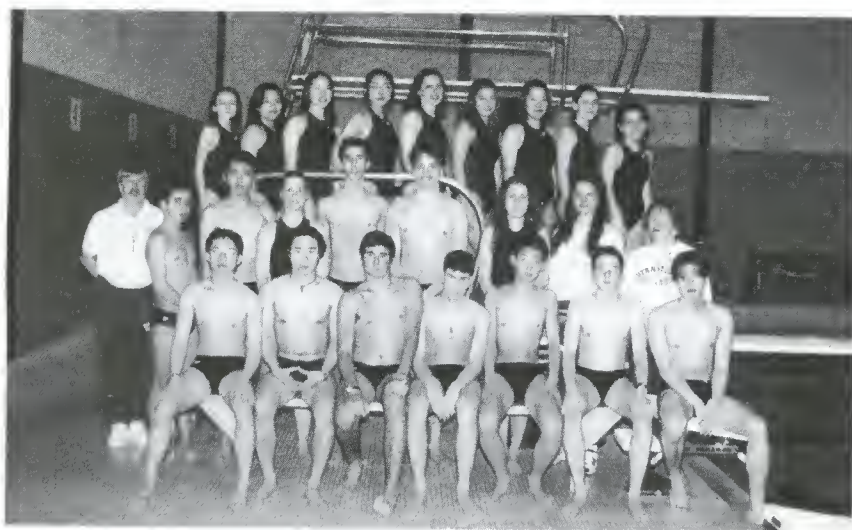

Senior "S" awards to Mikael Lanoe and Francois Carrier. Major "S" awards to Mathieu Plante and Tyson McDonald who was also the recipient of Most Valuable Player trophy.

Stanstead's x-country ski group was large, and divided into two sections: recreational and competitive. The competitive skiers, coached by Mr. Yves Simard, spent a lot of time learning new techniques, and racing styles. The competitive skiers were able to skate-ski proficiently, while the recreational skiers, headed by Mrs. Lightstone, favoured the classic touring style.

Ironically, the year the team had a strong coach, the competition at the high-school level was hard to find! The team attended an 'Open' at Orford, and the notorious meet at Sedberg, Ontario. Nikita Erikson competed in both meets, while eight other members of the team competed in Sedberg. Although we didn't make it to the winners' circle, we certainly didn't disgrace ourselves given the stiff competition and gruelling course.

Receiving Senior "S" Eduardo Dubost and Bantam "S" Kensuki Aoki and Miranda Lightstone. Our thanks to our fabulous manager Amber Stremalarr and all the recreational skiers who turned out daily, come shine or blizzard - it was real!

Swimming

Squash

Once again this year's swim team was small in numbers but big in spirit. Although we had many new faces on the team this year, I feel we had one of the most devoted and hard working teams of recent years. Our numbers were small as to be successful as a team, however, as individuals we made great accomplishments.

The improvement of individual times was certainly evident in our final ETIAC championship meet hosted by Stanstead. Nearly all our competitors improved their times and bettered their placing. Special note goes to Veronik Simard and Jacob Young who swept their divisions by placing first in most of their events.

I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate and thank the entire team, on behalf of the coaching staff, for a most enjoyable and exciting season. Special thanks are extended to our team captains, Velika Parent and Jacob Young, for all their support and expertise during the year.

Coaches Channell, Donahue and Martin

This year's squash season was a successful one and the students were a delight to coach.

The boy's team participated in a tournament against BCS, TCS, RCS and Appleby during weekend invitationals and displayed a great deal of sportsmanship, confidence, and enthusiasm for the sport both during the many hours of practice.

The girls also enjoyed a successful squash season as they participated in competitions against BCS. They showed perseverance and determination throughout and continued to show great improvement throughout the year.

Mrs. Moman and Mr. Williams would like to congratulate all the players for a terrific season.

This year was the most successful year ever for our senior rugby program. We had 20 out of 23 players who had played the game due to our junior program. We were much more advanced in our practices and we started doing things we had not done before. Our season began with the R. C. S. Tournament where we lost in the finals but did allow the fewest points in the tournament. Then we hosted the first ever National Independent Schools tournament where we played teams with much more experience but we did fare well by winning 1 out of 3. We had teams from across the country (British Columbia were represented). They were billeted at school and made very good friends with our students. Then began league play which could not of been more perfect. We were 4-0 in the league and we won the championship final 24-0 against B. C. S. We had 120 points for and 0 against. We are the first ever E. T. I. A. C. Champions. This was my most enjoyable year as a coach. You are the best group of kids I have ever coached, you were all focused and you had the desire to win. Our year record was 11 wins 4 losses and 2 ties. I am already looking forward to next year. O ale-a!

Coach Marino

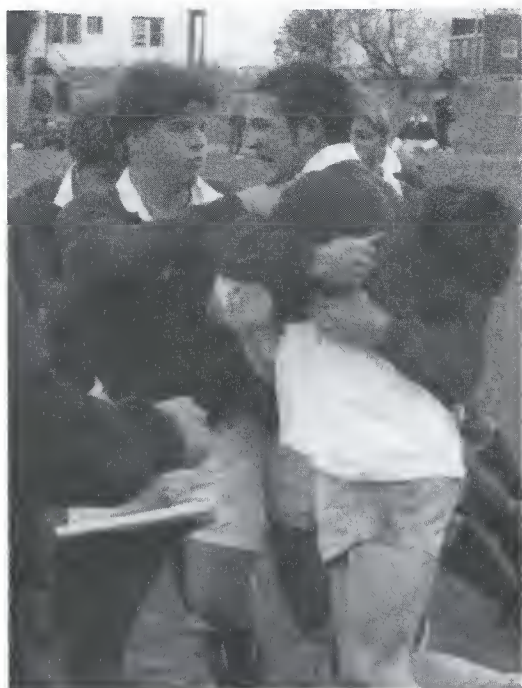

The Senior Girl's program for 1996 had a good turn out of 19 girls, 13 of which had never played before. The range of ages went from 13-18 and all possessing a keen desire to play the sport. Spirits were high, enthusiasm was great, commanderie was self evident.

Being in the league with B.C.S and Massey Vanier proves to be a challenge. The first game was played at home in the First National Independant schools Tournament. But with each game playes, great improvements could quickly be seen. As the season wound down, other teams could see that this group was determined to play an excellent game of rugby - which they accomplished well.

The senior "S" winners were Tasha (Hob-a-long) Adans and Robin (Gazelle) Mills fir their dedication, sportsmanship (sports-womanship?) and a magnificent effort given on the field. However, these two players could not have accomplished what they did without the support from the whole team.

A special thanks is extended to my co-captains, Nathalie Rheault and Ianitt Yoo. I am greatfull for what thte two of you did as leaders of thet team this season.

The Track & Field team and the season were certainly different from any in recent memory. We had the usual number of sign-ups (around 25) but only a little more than half really wanted to compete at the interscholastic level and opted to do the workouts on a recreational basis instead. Nevertheless, on behalf of Coaches Channell, Philip and myself, I want to thank everyone for their daily work and effort.

We were fortunate to have two standout athletes in the throwing events. In the shotput, discus and javelin, newcomer Theo Ganas and veteran Genevieve Yong each earned 7 first place and 2 second place ribbons in the 9 events in which they competed, with Genevieve breaking the senior girls shotput record in the process. Congratulations to Theo for winning the coveted Russel Langley Memorial Trophy as the top male athlete and special recognition to team captain Gen Yong who has now captured the Alice Amaron Trophy as the top girl track and field athlete for the third consecutive year.

Thanks to all who turned out. As coaches, we would certainly welcome some new blood as we try to rejuvenate the program in 1997.
 Coach Denney

We would like to thank the players on the tennis team for making it a rewarding season. Everyone on the team contributed his/her best and got involved in the sport as the season progressed.

Many of the players have enough experience in the game that they know how to handle what might otherwise be difficult solutions. The key word for this season was consistency. We found that the doubles and the mixed doubles teams were well suited to each other this year, and though they did not win all the matches, they still were very competitive.

I would like to congratulate Eric Bisson as the Major "S" winner for his talent and dedication to the sport. I would also like to recognize Sebastian Reisner for the Junior "S" award.

I would like to congratulate Angellica O'Sullivan, Deepali and Deepti Kumar on their Major "S" awards, they are the backbone of the girls team. I would like to recognize Velika Parent - our only rookie on the team - for her dedication to learning the sport and her willingness to play in any capacity assigned. Velika has earned her Senior "S" award.

Coaches Williams and Campbell.

A.K.A : Manabu Sama, Fujifilm, geek, Bu (Quebecois only).

MOST LIKELY TO: Be a member of the maintenance staff.

ACHIEVEMENTS: Not being the six years club yet and not being expelled yet!!

MEMORIES: I was wholly dead set against my parents to come hear, because I had a life in Japan. When I lost the argument to my parents, I went to look for a big fur coat, because I thought that Canada was the ice land..... I have been here for five years at Stanstead and I still don't know Saturday breakfast time. In my first year in French class with Mme. Martin, the only thing I learned from her was "Est ce que je peux aller aux toilettes." In e.s.l. with Mrs. Duncan, Miss Wadleigh, and Tomo..... it was fun. Mr. Ashworth's serious advice when I got in trouble. For five days I worked with the maintenance for serving out my suspension listening to my boss Stan's stories or shovel ice. All the breaks in Montreal, spending the night at DJ's or karaoke..... to all the medicine fellows: the best Mexican pal Salgado (Maya), Shawn Shon, Miyazawa, au, Jeffrey chi..... thanks a lot!!! Finally thanks to Stan (maintenance) and Norma (cleaning lady in Davis).

SPECIAL THANKS: To my parents, my sister for doing my homework, and my two best friends in Japan, Ryowa and Hiroshi..... arigatou!!! Super thanks to my advisor Mrs. Duncan for everything. Special apologies to Schouela for naming "yagi" and breaking his tooth.

SPECIAL THANKS: Mom, Dad, Nana, Papa. You all made this chance a reality, I Love You. Shoshanah, Mel, Nick, Wassim, Brad, Jason, etc. Mrs. Kasowski, Mr. Denney, Mr. Philip, Mr. Ashworth. Thanks for trying to keep me running the race and out of hot water.

Jan Valenta '93

A.K.A.: Jane Fonda, Yanush, Yo, Honza, Yan Man, Homer, Johnny, Brocoli.

MOST LIKELY TO: Become a philosopher.

ACHIEVEMENTS: Putting up with Mr. Marino in hockey, rugby, French class and especially in Davis, and never missing a rice party with Winny and Trudman.

MEMORIES: - I'll never forget listening to the Love Line with Trudman in Grade 9. Getting sent to the barn by every prefect in Bugbee in one night. Being stuck in the same room with Wass and his smelly feet. Getting caught drinking with the FRENCH CONNECTION during the Christmas Dance. Going to the rugby trip with BCS. Getting the opportunity to see Mr. Marino's real party side. Doing some weird stuff out the window with Dom in Scotland. Asking the time in French to the innocent Scottish people with Mat and Dom. Going to Montreal for the soccer tournament where Fred and I were asked for some drugs. Being stuck in a motel room with 3 grade 12 prefects was lots of fun. Having secret rice parties at night with Trudman and Winny was very filling. Hard Rock Café was relaxing after winning our first soccer game in Montreal. Singing at assembly with Mrs. Gittens was lots of fun.

SPECIAL THANKS: First of all I want to thank my Mom and my Grand Parents for encouraging me and helping me. Thanks to Marty, Winny, Franky, Tyson, Coco, Tasha, Vélka, Geneviève, Alex, Claudia, M-Eve, KING KONG and Katherine V. Thank you for everything Mr. Ashworth.

A.K.A.: Olivaa (The orientals pronounce my name like this), Ugly bear, Guey.

MOST LIKELY TO: Become the president of a very large enterprise, or just travel around the world by myself.

ACHIEVEMENTS: Becoming a member of the maintenance crew, Voluntary study (Once). A senior S in soccer.

MEMORIES: It's funny how most of us complain about this school, and want breaks to come as soon as possible, but when the end of the year finally arrives, we all have tears in our eyes, and wish that it was the first day of school. Time flies by fast. Stanstead granted me knowledge that I couldn't gain anywhere else. More than academically, likewise. The experiences that I went through made me learn much about life; Maturing, finding more myself, and most of all, learning how important friendship is. The experiences that I went through with my friends will never be forgotten, May Break, Spring (As a whole) la Paulina, Julio; from whom I learned infinitely (Eres como un hermano) Daniela; The Jim Morrison girl. Alex; Always giving me good advice (Thank you) Pato; together we're dangerous, Carlos; long talks at night, Hakim - I like your temper, Melisa - quiet, but always there, Gordo - annoying but with a great heart, Theo, Gready roommate, Dom - let's keep in touch, Manabu (O'pay), Winson (Versace), Kikuko (We are only friends). Thank you all!!!

SPECIAL THANKS: To my girlfriend for making my life easier here at Stanstead, to myself and to my parents.

Oliver Wirth '93

AKA: Gen, Genny Pooh Bear, Jen Jong, Bertha, Lik-m-aid, Genevievee, mute.

ACHIEVEMENTS: Finding my voice. Learning not to hold people to their word. Learning that you can't trust anyone.

MEMORIES: Pear shaped cows that remind you of flat, greasy, oily, oozing hunks of smelly grade Z beef burgers. DIABLO & Peanut Butter Crisps. Room confinement with Jennie. Work detail with Sarah. Infinity at exam time. Sarah my Peachy Buddy, my psychiatrist, my 3rd roommate. Vélka ODing on vitamins. Claudia, I respect myself? Nath are you still in the closet? Kiko McFujiburger. Nerds Spitballs & Dweebs. The balloon "You're my best friend" Marie-Eve's Pepsi with no glass & Tommy's sauce. I feel a gust of wind (you know who you are). Learning how to be like Barney in Webster. Tie my bow. Sugar Daddy's lampshades. Mr. Van Dyke, do you smell potpourri? Dislocating my knee twice & listening to Marino's singing at the hospital "Le soleil brille dans la toilette..." Junior my baby. Me Véli & Sarah having our door confiscated. See ya' wouldn't wanna' be ya'. Vélka my 2 year roomie (monkey face). REDRUM. Moo-oo-oo-oo. Lion King Pierrette. Webster house cinema. Tisane. Jumblo. Johnny Valenta at Red Lobster's. Good-night good-nuit bonne-nuit bonne-nuit bleu nuit. Mr. Jackson's chalk & verbal diarrhoea. Playing password with Sarah Mr. Simard and Mr. Van Dyke. Sarah do you remember the list? Basketball aerobics. And so on and so forth.

SPECIAL THANKS: Of course to my mom & dad for their love and support. To Mr. Denney & Mr. Wolfe for their good advice. To Pierrette, Moufette and Dorine for ditching me next year. Take care of you.

Genevieve Yong '93

A.K.A.: Huckleberry Finn, Huck, Nova, Jack, Winger, Jock, Jake, Jacque.

MOST LIKELY TO: Become a somebody.

ACHIEVEMENTS: Always being tardy, a lot of Bugbee cheeseburgers, starting the Stanstead Communist Youth Group, shocking people with my hair on a daily basis, losing my position as computer room monitor, winning the annual egg toss champs with Nishant, scratching so many cd's, seeing the inside of Webster, pulling a Bisson of all Bissons, steaking the salad bar.

MEMORIES: Bed parties in my room, "Why is there a picture of Supino on your wall?", Coco's high fives, Yagi and his carpets, that swarm of hicks, Tyson's dictionary set, death match and warcraft, Jung Suk Kim - One cool Korean, being caught with Nikita in the dark, Quebec Carnival, my wall of quotes, Meaghan's socks, lots of noodles, our wall of noodles, Isabelle - don't let anybody tell you that you are different, teasing Salgado, Sinan - I love you!, Tyson; Nikita; Nishant - we listen to good music, Hilroy 200, heated arguments with Guillaume, my roommates; Alain and Nathan, If you cannot go dance music..., Shin Myun always spits. One out of every ten, Top of the mornin' to ya.

SPECIAL THANKS: Mme. Martin, Mrs. Kasowski, and Mako

Madame Martin retires!

Mary Martin came to Stanstead College six years ago after a successful and full career as a teacher and principal. The first time she came to the college was a couple of years before her "first retirement". As we talked about teaching and the career of an educator, she said that she "would like to teach for a few years at this school before finally retiring for good.

Shortly a position as teacher of French became available, and Madame Martin submitted her application. Amongst the numerous candidates for the position, Madame Martin stood out by her enthusiasm, her positive attitude towards education, her mastery of the French language and her willingness to participate fully in the life of a boarding school.

It was not long after the beginning of her first school year with us that we all knew, students and teachers alike, that Mary Martin was a devoted and committed teacher of French. Throughout her six years here she refused no task. She taught French at all levels: beginning courses to students from many countries, intermediate courses of French as a second language and courses in français langue maternelle. Her love of the French language and her concern for quality in the usage of French are both a personal accomplishment and a goal. She was infinitely patient with her students and certain of her goal to impart this love of the language and its usage to all of her students, no matter the level.

She has been "coach" of the improvisation team (in French), a leading force behind the Department newspaper, Le Collégien, Assistant Director and Director of Colby House, a co-advisor to the Animation Committee for several years and has helped out with cross-country skiing and the swimming programme.

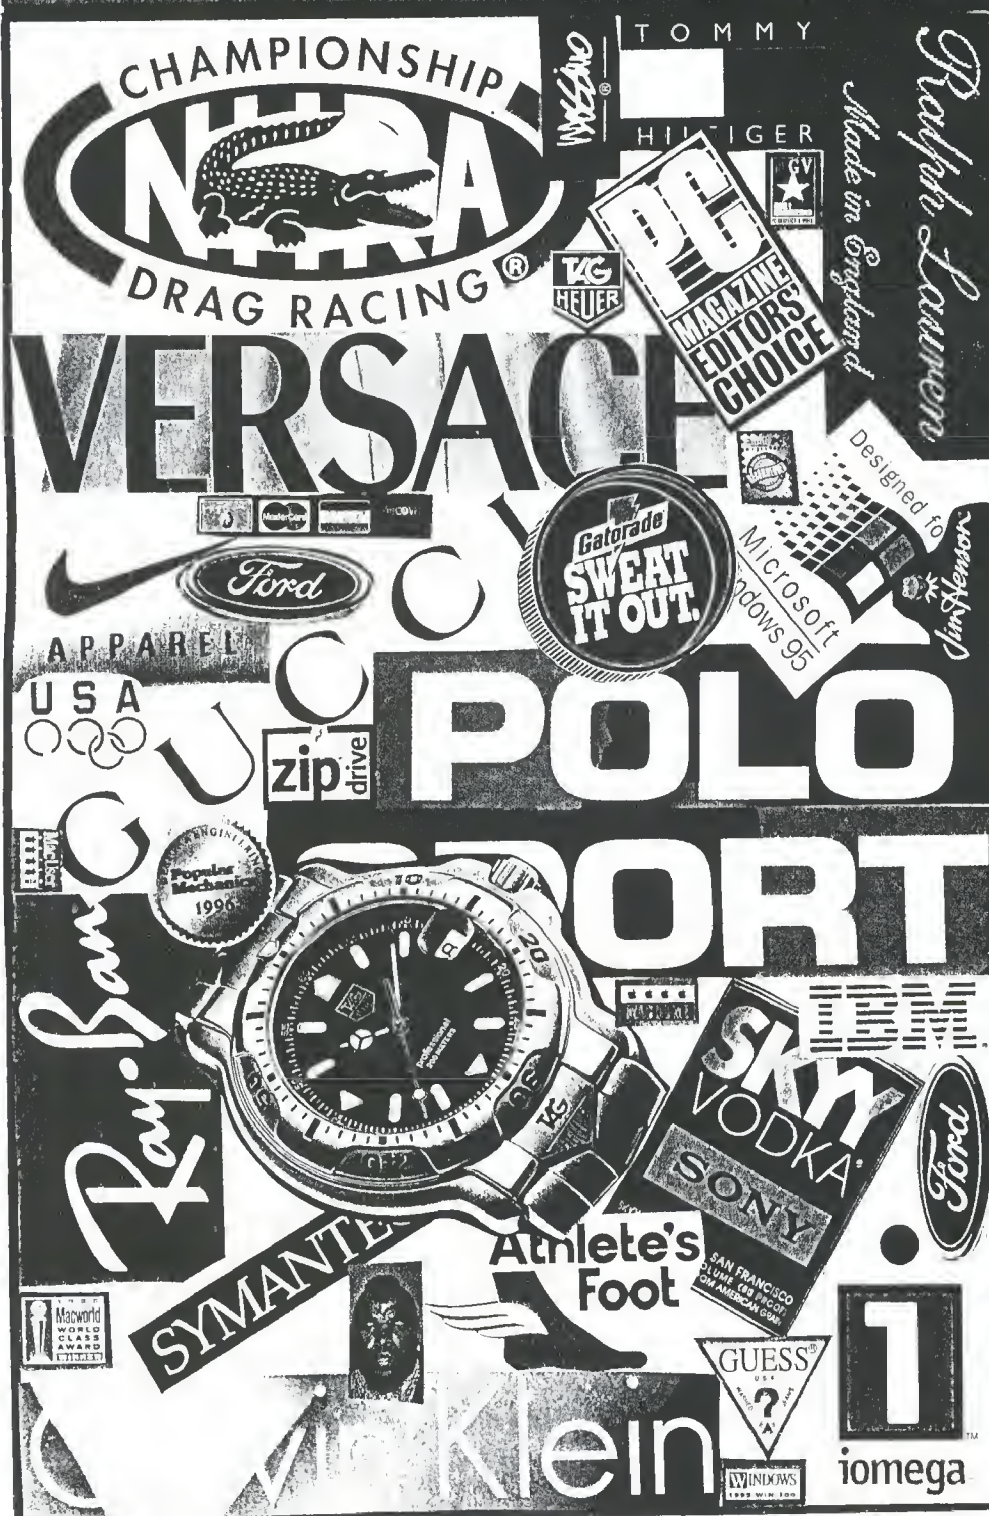

In her relationships with her students she has always been positive and supportive. She knows how to motivate and give good advice. She has been appreciated for her clear goals and her love of her subject. She has always been ready to give the benefit of the doubt and to give another chance. With her fellow teachers of the French language she has been a model of language usage and a source of information for teaching approaches and useful techniques for the teaching of French. She has always been ready to discuss her courses and to share ideas.

Obviously she will be missed in the Department of Languages and at Stanstead College in general. We wish her health, happiness and many years in which to pursue her interests.
